DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-8 and 10-69 are pending and subject to restriction requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-8, 28-33 and 44-48, drawn to a first product or to a composition with bacterial cells of belonging to Bacillus species.

Group II, claim(s) 10-13, drawn to a second product or to an extracellular product of cells of belonging to Bacillus species.

Group III, claim(s) 14-24, 34-43 and 49-69, drawn to a first method of using first product or to a method of preventing infection by topically applying a composition with bacterial cells of belonging to Bacillus species.

Group IV, claim(s) 25-27, drawn to a second method of using a second product or to a method of preventing infection by topically applying an extracellular product of cells of belonging to Bacillus species.

The inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Art Unit: 1651

This application contains claims drawn to more than one of permissible combinations of categories of inventions such as more than one product and process of use said product (more than one product and process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product).

Furthermore, a “special technical feature ” (that defines a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art) is known in the prior art.

For example: a first product or to a composition with bacterial cells of belonging to Bacillus species is known and is used for controlling insects or nematodes as taught by US 5,045,314 (col. 1, lines 25-30; col. 2, lines 66-68; col.4, example 1). A second product or to an extracellular product of cells of belonging to Bacillus species such as extracellular dextranase is known and is used in dental compositions as taught by US 5,000,939 (col. 1, lines 25-30; col.3, lines 57-60 and col. 4, lines 55-57).

Thus, unity of inventions is lacking. See MPEP 1850. 37 CFR 1.475.

37 CFR 1.475. Unity of invention before the International Searching Authority, the International Preliminary Examining Authority and during the national stage.

(a) An international and a national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept ( “requirement of unity of invention ”). Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression “special technical features ” shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

(b) An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- (1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
- (2) A product and a process of use of said product; or
- (3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
- (4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or
- (5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process.

(c) If an application contains claims to more or less than one of the combinations of categories of invention set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, unity of invention might not be present.

(d) If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each of the other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims, see PCT Article 17(3)(a) and § 1.476(c).

Art Unit: 1651

(e) The determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single general inventive concept shall be made without regard to whether the inventions are claimed in separate claims or as alternatives within a single claim.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
